Peak Design's Messenger Bag has almost arrived at Beau Photo! Apparently it is Kickstarter's most funded bag ever!

I was able to get my hands on this highly anticipated bag and it is impressive. It's lightweight, only 1100g (2.5 lbs.), and fits a 15" Mac book pro and/or an i-pad. The bag also has a tripod attachment holder for easy access.

The FlexFold™ dividers are based on an Origami design so you can fold and customize your bag layout. It's very well thought out and made. The MagLatch™ closure enables the bag to increase or reduce its size, making it very versatile for traveling. Watch the product video: <https://www.peakdesign.com/product/bags/the-everyday-messenger>

National Geographic “Private Collection” Camera Bags - Black Friday Special Price!

We will have a limited amount of stock of National Geographic bags from the “Private Collection” line on sale for a Black Friday/Cyber Monday Special!

There will be three different types to choose from; hopefully something for every kind of photographer! All of the bags in this line have the well-known rugged National Geographic bag design. The “Private Collection” bags feature a folded over top very similar to a classic rucksack or shoulder bag, inspired by a vintage adventurer look. This is my favorite line of the Nat Geo bags, with their subtle khaki coloring made of tough canvas and suede, aluminum buckles and satin lining. All of these bags feature padded inserts for your photo gear that are also removable; turning each bag into a great everyday pack as well.

Here's a run-down of the three sizes that we will have in store, something for the adventurer in all of us! Please note, these prices are limited to the stock on hand.

Medium Holster Bag – Ideal for mirrorless systems or a small DSLR with a short lens attached. An inconspicuous light weight bag, great for carrying your camera around with you daily so it is always at the ready. Regular Price: $104.99
BLACK FRIDAY SPECIAL PRICE: $78.75

Small Shoulder Bag – This bag is great for your mirrorless system, with room for a body with lens attached as well as an extra lens and accessories. It also has room for a tablet. A great bag for day trips.

BLACK FRIDAY SPECIAL PRICE: $122.75

Midi Messenger Bag – Fits a small DSLR camera with lens attached as well as an additional kit lens, with extra room for accessories and a tablet. This bag is longer than it is tall, whereas the Small Shoulder Bag is a bit taller but not as long. Regular Price: $166.59

BLACK FRIDAY SPECIAL PRICE: $124.75

Not wanting to be overshadowed by all of the digital drama and online shopping from the Black Friday and Cyber Monday sales, we've decided that we would celebrate the thoughtful, slower nature of film and darkroom printing by having Analogue Tuesday.

Even though Tuesday is the special day, we will have these specials on for Friday and Monday as well in case we find anyone who seems disillusioned by digital that we may be able to convert!

We have just added two new products from RoundFlash. The RoundFlash-Ring and the RoundFlash-Dish.

The RoundFlash-ring is a great portable speedlight accessory that mimics the look of a ringlight. The effect is beautiful soft light with a circular catch light in the eyes. Perfect for portraits when you don't have the space for a large setup or budget for conventional ringlight and powerpack. This accessory packs up into a small 8" x 6" pouch which will still fit in most photographer's camera bags. The initial tests we did here showed that the RoundFlash-ring offers a very even light with no hot spot.

The RoundFlash-Dish is another speedlight accessory. I can best describe it as a pop-up beauty dish. It is a great accessory for the portrait photographer on the run. When collapsed it is only 7" x 6" and it extends to almost 18". The quality of light is very pleasing and the speed of set up is mere seconds.

RoundFlash-Dish - $97.95

MIKE M.

Fujinon XF 35mm f2 lens review

I recently received my own personal new Fujinon XF 35mm f/2 lens, in silver of course, to match my silver X-E2. Actually, the combination looks quite retro and very nice to me, like an old Leica lens or even an old silver Hasselblad lens in miniature! The WR designation means it is sealed against moisture and dust, joining the 16mm f/1.4 and 90mm f/2 lenses as the only primes with WR. How does it perform optically, you might be wondering? Well firstly, have a look at a gallery of samples I shot here...

http://www.sublimephoto.com/exhibit/2015/1122_tested_35mm_f2/

Note that for a more detailed review, including some animations and additional images, click on the -back to post- link at the top of the gallery to take you back to the originating blog posting. In summary form, here are my pros, cons and nitpicks...

Pros

- small, lightweight, stylish and relatively inexpensive.
- sharp across the majority of the frame, even wide open at f/2 (except for the edges and corners). Excellent micro-contrast.
- smooth bokeh with minimal outlining and minimal colour fringing.
- fairly resistant to lens flare and contrast loss although not quite as good as some of Fujifilm's other recent (and much more expensive) lenses.
- mechanically very solid with excellent aperture and focus rings

Cons

- lens has a fair bit of barrel distortion and is not perfectly corrected optically like the XF 35mm f/1.4R. See the full review online for more details on that.
- at wider apertures, point light sources in the corners suffer from a lot of coma.
- some glow and contrast loss around very bright light sources, especially at larger apertures. Actually, I personally kind of like it though, so not really a con for me!
- edges of the frame don't truly sharpen up until you stop down to f/5.6 and beyond.
- extreme corners don't sharpen up fully until you get past f/8.

Nitpicks

- cosmetically, I would have liked to see the outside of the hood in silver; for the silver lens.
- aperture ring is stiff enough that the detents are not quite as crisp as they could be.
- blur circles are cut off towards the corners, not perfectly circular; until you get past f/4. In reality, preventing this would have made for a much larger lens, so I only mention this as a nitpick and realize it is a compromise of its compact design!

In summary, I like this lens. Image quality is good and I even enjoy the slight aforementioned glow around bright lights. Micro-contrast across most of the frame seems generally very good even wide open. Bokeh is nice, when wide open for portraits, and at f/8 and beyond it can do duty for cityscapes and landscapes, with sharp corners too. Its WR designation, small size and light weight means it will be taking up a permanent place in my camera bag.

Test images from the new Fujinon XF 35mm f/2 lens. Visit http://www.sublimephoto.com/exhibit/2015/1122_tested_35mm_f2/ to see high res samples.

We are eagerly awaiting the imminent arrival of the Sony

α7sII

let you know as soon as we get one in! This will be a camera to be reckoned with! Price TBD

Impossible Project Workshop

Join us for an Impossible Project Lift workshop on December 10th from 5:30pm-7:30pm. In this workshop we will show you how to create your own Impossible Project emulsion lifts onto paper and other items, such as canvas, glass, plastic or anything else you might want to try. You will go home with at least one lift that you did yourself, and the knowledge to continue with the process.

Everything you'll need is included and it only costs $20! Call or e-mail Nicole at film@beauphoto.com to register.

Speaking of Instant fun...Beau will have special Christmas pricing on various Polaroid camera models, making them not only a wonderful present but an affordable one!

New Impossible Film

Impossible Project is releasing another limited edition film: Duo-chrome blue/green, which means it looks teal and black. I'm pretty excited to try lifting it! Pictures to come in next month's newsletter.

Fuji Instax - A Great Gift!

If you'd like other instant options, there are few different cameras you could try. The most popular is the Fuji Instax Mini series which produce business card sized photos. Currently there are three models available. The Instax Mini 8, sold at $99.00 and the Instax Mini 70 (which is their new release) are the more basic of the Minis, giving the user little to no control over exposure and focal length. However the Instax Mini 90

Mini 90

Neo Classic has many features such as exposure control, flash control, macro mode and double exposure mode. It does cost slightly more $197.99. I liked the Mini 90 so much I purchased one as soon as they were released onto the market.

If small photos aren't your thing, Fuji does make a camera with larger rectangular photos called the Fuji Instax Wide 300. It costs $149.99.

There is nothing quite like the look on someone's face when you share an instant photo with them!

Film Department Redecorating

You may have noticed the film department has switched around a little. Due to all the exciting consignments coming into Beau Photo we decided to move the black & white film into the fridges and utilize the shelves for all our vintage cameras and manual focus lenses to be displayed.

A Linhoff Technika with both 6x7 and 6x9 backs has found its way into our consignment case. It also comes with a 3x4 sheet film back. There are three lenses included in with the set, a 65mm, 105mm and a 180mm. This Linhoff kit is on for $1400.

Also new to our consignment department is a medium format Kiev 88 with an 80mm F2.8 and a 300mm f4.5 lens. This camera was manufactured in the Ukraine in the 70's. Its design is copied from a Hasselblad. The Kiev 88 is marked at $350.00.

For darkroom & photographic services, there's someone new in town willing to give private lessons on everything from using your film camera on manual to film processing and printing photos in a darkroom. For more info call Ben at 778-839-7797 or send an email to info@benpoultonphotography.com

PRESENTATION PRODUCTS

BARB B..

Welcome to the Holiday Season! My sincere wish is that everyone be able to relax and enjoy the warmth and fellowship of friends and family. Let the celebrations commence! Be Merry! Eat lots of cookies!

Need mounts in time for the holiday?

Most 'For Christmas' ordering deadlines have passed, but if you've got a last-minute client, our warehouse is currently fully stocked. If your client needs imprinted mounts, there's a possibility that we'll be able to order them from AGT and receive in time for their event, though air shipping will probably be required. If they already have an imprinting die on file, it is more likely we'll meet the deadline, but we might be able to accommodate a new client as long as I receive their artwork without delay.

Remember that artwork must be correctly sized, black and white, with no half-tones or shading, and be submitted in .eps or vector file format. Please email the artwork and presentation date/deadline to me: barb@beauphoto.com and I'll forward it to the factory for approval and request rush service on the die and imprinting.

Price Increases

Both AGT and TAP will be increasing their prices by 5-7% at the beginning of the new year. As well, TAP prices will adjust to reflect the current rate of U.S. Exchange. I'll be placing booking orders with both factories on December 30. If you need supplies early in 2016, I would suggest you order by December 29th to take advantage of 2015 pricing.
